

First 7 months at a glance...

April 2020 | e-Newsletter

This is the first newsletter of the SafePASS project and contains information about the most important events related to SafePASS project up to date.

The duration of the project is three years, starting from September 2019.

What is SafePASS Project about ?

Aim

SafePASS is an EU H2020-funded project that aims to the design of the next generation of life-saving appliances and systems for safe and swift operations on high capacity passenger ships in extreme scenarios and conditions.

Click here to find out about the SafePASS Objectives and much more

Consortium Meetings

Kick-Off Meeting | 10-11 Sep 2019

The kick-off meeting was held in Athens, Greece last September and hosted by NTUA. More than 35 representatives present from all the 15 consortium partners.

Find Out More

1st Plenary Meeting | 28 Jan 2020

Held at the beginning of this year at the University of Strathclyde (Glasgow, United Kingdom) and hosted by the Maritime Safety Research Centre (MSRC), the 1st Plenary Meeting was organised to be back-to-back with the first workshop of the project, which was held the day after the meeting.

Find Out More

Workshops

Evacuation and Emergency Drills onboard 'Jewel of the Seas' | 23-24 Nov 2019

Consortium members had the opportunity to observe the Pre-Departure Safety Training, Guest Evacuation Drill and All Crew Drill for General Emergency onboard the Royal Caribbean Cruises' MV 'Jewel of the Seas' cruise ship. Questionnaires and interviews with the safety critical crew members was critical for the definition of the end user's requirements.

Find Out More

LSA Tank Test Specification | 11 Dec 2019

Academic members of the consortium together with the Life-saving Appliances (LSAs) manufacturers met in Chantiers de l'Atlantique shipyard in order to plan the LSA's parameters for model testing.

Stakeholder Requirements, LSA and Community of Practises | 29 Jan 2020

This workshop was dedicated in capturing the feedback from various maritime stakeholders in terms of passenger ship safety and emergency response. Consortium members and external representatives from Flag states, Classification Societies and Cruise Ship Operators participated in an open discussion and helped the consortium focus its research efforts.

Find Out More

Other Activities

Presentation for RINA General Assembly of Greek Cruise Ship Owners Union | 8 Dec 2019

RINA Hellas attended the meeting and disseminated SafePASS project's aim and objectives .

Scottish Branch | 2 Mar 2020

Our academic partner's from the University of Strathclyde presented their research work and made an introductory presentation to the SafePASS project in Badcock International Rosyth Shipyards after an invitation by the Scottish Branch of the Royal Institution of Naval Architects.

Sustainable and Safe Passenger Ships Conference | 4 Mar 2020

This conference was co-organised by the Hellenic Institute of Marine Technology and the Royal Institution of Naval Architects. Our academic partners from NTUA and MSRC presented their technical papers related on ship evacuation.

Find Out More

Upcoming Events

Posidonia Ποσειδώνια
The International Shipping Exhibition

Our Consortium

EXUS

UNIVERSITY OF STRATHCLYDE
MARITIME SAFETY
RESEARCH CENTRE

Telesto Technologies
Information Communication Technologies

crowd dynamics

DGINEXT
be visionary

Trinity College Dublin
Coláiste na Tríonóide, Baile Átha Cliath
The University of Dublin

survitec

CHANTIERS
DE L'ATLANTIQUE

RINA

ROYAL CARIBBEAN CRUISES LTD.

DNV-GL

SEAbility

VIKING
LIFE-SAVING EQUIPMENT

This project has received funding from the European Union's Horizon 2020 research and innovation programme. Grant Agreement ID: 815146. Content reflects only the authors' view and European Commission is not responsible for any use that may be made of the information it contains.

Copyright © 2020 SafePASS Project, All rights reserved.